- * Payments and Cancellation terms are subject to change without prior notice.
- * Refunds will only be in Indian Rupees, payable by check, and, subject to rate of exchange, as applicable.

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS

Please familiarize yourself with the required travel documents you will be asked to provide prior to boarding the cruise ship.

Passport: A valid passport is required for travel. For your protection, we recommend that your passport expiration date does not occur within six (6) months of the sailing termination date.

Visa: It is the guests' responsibility to identify and to obtain the necessary visas before commencing their cruise itinerary. As a ready reckoner and based on information available with us, you may visit <http://www.tirun.com/cruises/terms/Travel%20Documents.pdf> or refer to the attached visa document for information or visiting as appropriate. However, current and up-to-date visa information is best sourced from the Embassy / Consulate of the country proposed to be visited, and, neither, TIRUN Travel Marketing, nor, the cruise line can be held responsible for visa procurement and rules and regulations of various countries to be visited on your cruise ship itinerary.

It is the sole responsibility of the guest to identify and obtain all necessary travel documents and have them available when necessary. These appropriate valid travel documents such as passports and visas are required for boarding the ship and entry into the countries to be visited on the guest's cruise. Guests who do not possess proper documentation may be prevented from boarding the ship or entering a country to be visited on their cruise and may be subject to fines. No refunds will be given to individuals who fail to bring proper documentation.

GUARANTEE STATEROOM

A 'Guarantee' means you are guaranteed the stateroom category of choice, however, the stateroom number is allocated at the discretion of the cruise line, any time after full payment and or up to check-in. Please note that your stateroom could be allocated on any deck & may / may not have an obstructed view or be wheel chair accessible. For guests travelling with families, and have booked two or more guarantee staterooms, please be advised that rooms can be allotted on any deck, not necessarily on the same deck or near each other.

Third/Fourth Guests:

Staterooms allocated in triple & quad occupancy cannot be utilized as doubles. RCL may require that staterooms with the capacity to accommodate three or more guests be fully occupied. RCL reserves the right to move guests to a comparable stateroom with the appropriate number of berths if (i) Travel Partner books a stateroom with fewer than the maximum number of guests that the stateroom can accommodate, or (ii) a guest cancellation occurs and the remaining number of guests do not match the maximum number of guests the stateroom can accommodate

SWIM WEAR

In the interest of all passengers & hygiene, it is mandatory to use "Swim Wear" in the pools/ whirlpools. "Non-Swim Wear" clothing will not be permitted in these areas.

AGE POLICY

Royal Caribbean International's Age Policy

Royal Caribbean International's minimum age to sail unaccompanied on sailings originating in North America is twenty-one (21). The minimum age to sail unaccompanied on sailings from South America, Europe, Asia, Australia and New Zealand is eighteen (18).

The Company retains the right, on rare occasions, to raise the minimum age to sail unaccompanied on any sailing when local laws require or permit such a modification.

For voyages originating in North America:

No Guest younger than the age twenty-one (21) will be assigned to a stateroom unless accompanied in the same stateroom by an adult twenty-one (21) years old or older. A guest's age is established upon the first date of sailing.

This age limit will be waived for children sailing with their parents or guardians in connecting staterooms; for underage married couples; and for active duty members of the United States or Canadian military.

Certain other restrictions and conditions will apply; such as compliance with the age twenty-one (21) alcohol policy, and proof of marriage for underage couples or proof of active duty military status required.

INFANT POLICY

Infants sailing on a cruise must be at least 6 months old as of the first day of the cruise and/or CruiseTour. HOWEVER: For transatlantic, transpacific, Hawaii, select South American and other selected cruises and/or CruiseTours, the infant must be at least 12 months old as of the first day of the cruise/CruiseTour. For the purposes of this policy, any cruise that has 3 or more days consecutive at sea will require infants to be 12 months old on the first day of the cruise/CruiseTour.

India Representatives

Please be aware that guests travelling with a young infant that does not meet the infant policy will be denied boarding. No refunds or other compensation shall be due from the cruise line to anyone as a result of the denial of boarding to an underage infant or other accompanying guests.

Royal Caribbean International reserves the right to ask for proof of age. Royal Caribbean International's age policy for gambling and consumption of alcoholic beverages is as follows: Please note: An individual's age on the date of sailing determines his or her status for their cruise vacation. However, if a guest celebrates their 21st birthday during the cruise, the guest may thereafter ask the Guest Services Manager to modify ship's records to permit their consumption of alcohol during the remainder of the cruise. The guest will be required to appear at Guest Services with his or her parent or guardian and to present a government issued form of identification to establish that the guest's 21st birthday was celebrated during the cruise.

Minors Not Accompanied By A Legal Guardian

“Adults who are not the parent or Legal Guardian of any minor child travelling with them are required to present the child's valid passport and visa (or certified copy of the child's birth certificate) and an original notarized letter signed by at least one of the child's parents. The letter notarized letter from the child's parent must authorize the travelling adult to take the child on the specific cruise and must authorize the travelling adult to supervise the child and permit any medical treatment that must be administered to the child. If a nonparent adult is a Legal Guardian, the adult must present a certified certificate of Guardianship with respect to the child.”

ALCOHOL POLICY

Effective immediately on all sailings, the minimum drinking age for all alcoholic beverages on all Royal Caribbean International is as follows.

- The minimum age to consume alcohol on Royal Caribbean International ships on sailings originating in North America is twenty-one (21).
- The minimum age to consume alcohol on Royal Caribbean International ships on sailings from South America, Europe, Asia, Australia and New Zealand is eighteen (18). The minimum age to consume alcohol at all private destinations remains twenty-one (21) without regard to where the sailing originated. The Company retains the right, on rare occasions, to raise the minimum age of alcohol consumption on any sailing when local laws require or permit such a modification.
- Guests may bring personal wine and champagne onboard only on boarding day, limited to two (2) 750 ml bottles per stateroom. When consumed in any public area, each bottle shall be subject to a corkage fee of $15 corkage fee per bottle. Alcoholic beverages that are purchased in ports of call or from onboard shops will be stored by the ship and delivered to guest staterooms on the last day of the sailing. Security may inspect containers (water bottles, soda bottles, mouthwash, luggage etc.) and will dispose of containers holding alcohol. Royal Caribbean's Guest Conduct Policy may be enforced, up to and including disembarkation, if a guest violates any alcohol policy. Guests under the age of 21 will not have alcohol returned to them.
- Guests who violate any alcohol policies, (over consume, provide alcohol to people under age 21, demonstrate irresponsible behavior, or attempt to conceal alcoholic items at security and or luggage check points or any other time), may be disembarked or not allowed to board, at their own expense, in accordance with our Guest Conduct Policy.
- All guests must comply with TSA guidelines for transporting liquids.
- Royal Caribbean reserves the right to revoke or otherwise restrict drinking privileges of any guest, regardless of age.

Celebrity Cruises - Age Policy (General)

India Representatives

Minor in Stateroom:

No guest under the age of 21 will be booked in a stateroom unless accompanied by an adult 21 years or older. This age limit will be waived for minor children sailing with their parents or guardians in adjacent staterooms.

Casino Age Policy:

Everyone 18 years and older is welcome to play, some Alaskan ports require a minimum age of 21.

Alcohol Policy:

The minimum drinking age for all alcoholic beverages on all Royal Caribbean International ships is 21. However, on cruises in Europe, South America, and Australia, where the legal drinking age is lower than 21, a parent who is sailing with his or her son (s) and/or daughter (s) who is between the ages of 18 to 20, may sign a waiver Click here for more information allowing the 18 to 20 year old to consume alcoholic beverages.

The 18- to 20 year-old must agree to comply with Celebrity Cruises' policies, including among other things, agreeing to not provide alcoholic beverages to any other person, regardless of age. Restrictions apply, and this policy is subject to change without notice.

An individual's age on the date of sailing determines his or her status for the entire cruise vacation. However, if a guest celebrates their 21st birthday during the cruise, the guest may thereafter ask the Front Desk Manager to modify the ship's records to permit their consumption of alcohol during the remainder of the cruise. The guest will be required to appear at the Guest Relations Desk with his/her parent or guardian and must present a government issued form of identification to establish that the guest's 21st birthday was celebrated during the cruise.

Guests are not allowed to bring alcoholic nor non-alcoholic beverages onboard for consumption or any other use. Alcoholic & non-alcoholic beverages that are purchased in ports-of-call or from Shops On Board will be stored by the ship and delivered to your stateroom on the last day of the sailing. Guests wishing to bring personal wine onboard with them at the beginning of the cruise may do so, limited to two bottles per stateroom, but when consumed in any shipboard restaurant, bar, or dining venue, each bottle shall be subject to a corkage fee of $15 corkage fee per bottle.

Royal Caribbean's Guest Conduct Policy may be enforced, up to and including disembarkation, if a guest violates any alcohol policy. Guests under the age of 21 will not have alcohol returned to them.

Security may inspect containers (water bottles, soda bottles, mouthwash, luggage etc.) and will dispose of containers holding alcohol.

Guests who violate any alcohol policies, (over consume, provide alcohol to people under age 21, demonstrate irresponsible behavior, or attempt to conceal alcoholic items at security and or luggage check points or any other time), may be disembarked or not allowed to board, at their own expense, in accordance with our Guest Conduct Policy. Guests under the age of 21 will not have alcohol returned to them.

Celebrity Cruises reserves the right to revoke or otherwise restrict drinking privileges of any guest, regardless of age.

Additional policies for groups are located in the Appendices of the Travel Agent Guide and are enforced without exception.

PREGNANCY POLICY

The cruise line will not accept guests who have entered their 24th week of pregnancy by the beginning of, or at any time during their cruise vacation. A physician’s “Fit to Travel” note is required prior to sailing, stating how far along (in weeks) the guest’s pregnancy will be at the beginning of the cruise and confirming that the guest is in good health and not experiencing a high-risk pregnancy.

ONLINE CHECK-IN

With effect from 01 January 2001, the legislation requires the cruise line to pass onto the US immigration authorities, or other authorized bodies certain personal and other details relating to our passengers. You must provide the relevant details at the time of booking your cruise, or no later than 60 days prior to your departure, whichever is the later.
